CROSSCOUNTRY SHINES AGAIN IN NATIONAL RAIL SURVEY

National Passenger Survey (NPS) figures released today by the independent rail watchdog, Passenger Focus, show increases in satisfaction over the last 12 months from customers using CrossCountry train services – in key areas such as train capacity, punctuality, cleanliness and comfort.

The latest figures, taken from the survey conducted in Autumn 2009, show overall customer satisfaction increased by two points to 85% - the highest level of ever recorded by CrossCountry and 2 points above the national average.

CrossCountry NPS highlights include:

- 85% of customers believe CrossCountry offer punctual and reliable services. A five point increase in satisfaction
- 70% of customers surveyed feel that there is sufficient room on all CrossCountry services. An impressive 11 point increase
- 84% continue to feel secure whilst travelling on CrossCountry. A three point increase
- 76% believe CrossCountry offer good options and connections with other forms of transport. A three point increase on the same survey period in 2008.

Commenting on the survey results Andy Cooper, Managing Director for CrossCountry, said: "We are delighted that customers have again recognised the improvements we have delivered. Since the start of our franchise we have been investing heavily to meet our customers' expectations. Our refurbished trains and new timetables help deliver fast, comfortable, long distance services and important connections that customers know they can rely on."

Andy added: "As with every survey, there are areas highlighted that we know need improvements and the findings and feedback will help us to focus and concentrate our efforts where we need to do better."
