What happens next?

CrossCountry aims to provide the most punctual service possible, but when serious delays occur we will apologise and provide appropriate compensation. If your journey with us was delayed by a long time, irrespective of what caused the delay, you may be entitled to compensation under our Delay Repay scheme. For our customers whose journeys are delayed by CrossCountry trains we offer:

- 50% of the cost of your single ticket or 50% of the cost of either portion of your return ticket for delays of between 30 and 59 minutes; or
- 100% of the cost of your single ticket or 100% of the cost of either portion of your return ticket for delays of 60 minutes or more.
- If either or both the outward or return legs of your journey are delayed by more than two hours and you have a return ticket, you will be entitled to receive up to 100% of the cost of the return ticket.

- In the case of season tickets, any compensation will be calculated against the proportional daily cost of the price of the ticket. Compensation will be paid in National Rail vouchers, which can be used as payment for (or part payment towards) any National Rail ticket, including season tickets, or a cash alternative. Please confirm the option you require when you submit your claim to us. Our Customer Relations Team will respond as soon as possible. We aim to reply within 10 working days.
